Aim
The aim of the course is to prepare the participant for a peacekeeping operation or equivalent so they can work effectively with the outlined objectives according to United Nations Security Council Resolutions mandate, European Union CSDP missions or an OSCE action plan.

Learning outcome

After the course the participant will be able to:

Describe vital characteristics and requirements of a police peacekeeper as well as considerations he/she need to make when supporting capacity building of host-state police agencies in line with principles of democratic policing.

Explain and understand why the outlined conduct and discipline are seen as essential elements for the mission to be successful in the host country.

General information

The course will be held at Swedint, the Lifeguard regiment in Kungsängen outside Stockholm.
